FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS

IFIP/TC9 5TH WORLD CONFERENCE ON HUMAN CHOICE AND COMPUTERS
COMPUTERS AND NETWORKS IN THE AGE OF GLOBALIZATION
GENEVA AUGUST 1998

Dear Colleagues and To whom it may concern,

The IFIP (International Federation of Information Processing <http://www.ifip.or.at>)
Technical Committee 9 (<http://www.uta.fi/jarjestot/ifip/>) is preparing a World Conference on Implications of new Information Technologies:

The fifth Conference on "Human Choice and Computers" (HCC5) on COMPUTERS AND NETWORKS IN THE AGE OF GLOBALIZATION

(Web site : <http://www.hec.unil.ch/hcc5/>)

This Event will take place in Switzerland (Geneva) from 26 to 28 August 1998 (Tutorials, Working Groups Meeting, get together, 25 August), organized by the Inforge (<http://www.hec.unil.ch/inforge/>) from Lausanne University Business School (<http://www.hec.unil.ch>)

In a particularly chaotic period with a lot of social, economic, political and ethical problems, that Conference must be a most interesting and challenging event to cross intercultural perceptions and examine the issues to be settled for the next Millenium in relation with Informatics, Computer Science, Networks and Information Systems. As wide field of disciplines are concerned, the Programme and Organizing Committees, hope for large scientific contributions from non-computer research fields ie Sociology, Economy, Law, Politics, Business, Electronic Commerce, etc.

The main topics of that Conference will covered:

Methodological Paradigms and Shifts : Virtual Reality, Multimedia, Cyberspace, Information and Communication Infrastructures
 National and Regional Developments of Information Infrastructures
 Role of Work in Information Societies : Experiences and Perspectives
 Human Rights in Information Societies and Role of Groups with Special Needs
 Home Informatics and Telematics
 Threats to Information Economies and Societies: Legal Implications
 Information Societies in Historical Perspective
 Role of Education in Information Societies and Impact of Information and Communication Technologies on Education
 Impact of Global Information Infrastructures on Democracy and Culture
 Economic changes induced by Globalization
 Emerging organisational forms such as virtual organisations"
 Towards an Ethics of Information Societies and Cyberspace
 Informatics, Telematics & Automation
 Virtual Worlds - Applications and Social Implications
 Women, Work and Computerization
 Gender and Information Technology

Accepted papers will be published with an official editor of IFIP
